The Ferry is allowed to be the best one on the Monongahela, and the situation of the property generally admirably calculated for the river trade, as it affords the easiest and most convenient communication; its length is 160 feet on Wood street, and is directly opposite Mr. T. Cromwell's warehouse, a number of shops are erected thereon, and on Front street it contains 60 feet, the corner occupied by Mr. Samuel Smith as a store, and is a well known stand. The real advantages of the Ferry are so well known as to need no comment. It is occupied by Mr. W. Graham.

BRIG. GEN. WILLIAM HULL.

HEAR BOTH SIDES.

General Hull feeling himself persecuted by his government, and greatly injured by the Court Martial, has appealed for redress to the Sovereign People. The following is his first address on the subject, in which he pledges himself to prove that he is an innocent and persecuted man. Notwithstanding the decision of the Court Martial, the people ought to grant him a patient and candid hearing.

[N. Y. Mer. Adv.

FROM THE BOSTON CENTINEL.

To the People of the United States.

IT is no common occasion, which could have justified this address. The interest you have in the events, which have taken place, while I commanded one of your armies, and your knowledge of my present situation, I presume, will render any apology unnecessary. I am now only connected with you, by the endearing ties of a fellow citizen, and have no other relation to the government, but what is common to you all. My claims to your attention arise from the persecution I have experienced and the injustice I have suffered. Having received this persecution and injustice from your servants, for my conduct, while in your service, it is a duty, which I owe, both to you and myself, to present to you a true statement of my case, to satisfy you, I have been faithful to your interest. and appeal to your judgment, for a reversal of the unjust sentence, which has been pronounced against me.

Whilst I was an officer of the government, considerations of duty, and a sense of propriety prevented me from making any communication to you in vindication of my public conduct.

I fully expected in an investigation before a tribunal organized under the constitution and laws to have convinced you that during my military command I had deserved well of my country. But how vain have been my expectations!—Instead of having been honorably restored to your confidence, I have been branded with the imputation of crimes the most wounding to the feelings of an honorable man, and authorities emanating from you have passed on me the highest sentence of the law, for acts dictated by the purest motives, and the highest sense of duty. Although your President has remitted this sentence, it is no satisfaction to me. The remnant of a long life which has uniformly been devoted to honorable pursuits is not worth preserving in dishonor.

I am an innocent man, and as brave now as when I followed the standard of WASHINGTON over those memorable fields where the battles were fought which secured the independence of our country.

In the critical and highly responsible situation in which I was placed, I did what I believed to be my duty. I still believe I did what I ought to have done. I am now satisfied that the calamities to our country would have been much greater, if I had pursued any other course.—Notwithstanding what I have suffered, I now rejoice, that I had the firmness and courage to do my duty; and to do that which your interest rendered proper and necessary to be done. In the solemn appeal I now make, I expect to satisfy you of this truth. The object of this address is to request you to suspend your opinion until you have before you the statement of my case, and the evidence on which it is founded. This shall be done as soon as the nature of the subject will possibly admit. A large majority of the court was composed of young officers, recently appointed, and who had seen no military service. From their want of military experience, they were incapable of forming a correct opinion on the conduct of an officer commanding an army. In a government like ours this appeal must be founded in propriety. The tribunal of the public is the highest of all tribunals. In you is the sovereign power. Your determination therefore must be final and conclusive. To you, then, my fellow citizens, in the last resort I appeal in the full conviction that your decision will prove, how cruelly I have been persecuted, and how unjustly I have been condemned.

WILLIAM HULL.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

LATE AND IMPORTANT NEWS FROM FRANCE.

From the Boston Daily Advertiser, of May 12.

Arrived below, brig Ida, capt. Mantor 31 days from Rochelle, (France.) No papers are as yet received from the Ida, but the following summary of the news by her, has been sent up by gentlemen passengers:

She sailed from Rochelle on the 8th April. Bordeaux was taken possession of by the English and Portuguese troops on the 12th March, without opposition; the French troops having evacuated it the day before.

The town and fortress of Blaye, on the river, was reported and believed to have surrendered a few days before the departure of Capt. M. which would leave no obstacle to the shipping, which was lying in the river, arriving at Bordeaux.

The Emperor's head quarters were at Troyes on the 29th March, and he was then directing his march by Sens towards Paris.

On the 31st March, he was at Fontainbleau, but he heard that the enemy had arrived 27 hours before him, and OCCUPIED PARIS, after a sanguinary conflict. The corps of the duke of Treviso, and Ragusa, and that of gen. Compans, who had co-operated in the defence of the capital, had joined between Essone and Paris, where the Emperor took position with all the army that arrived from Troyes.

A general dissatifaction prevailed against the system which has so long oppressed them; and they desire nothing more than an opportunity to shake off the Tyrant's yoke.

The duke of Angouleme, (nephew of Louis the present claimant of the French throne, and son-in-law of the late King,) was at Bordeaux, and that all proclamations, &c. were issued by him in the name of LOUIS XVIII. It was also reported at Rochelle, that the city of Angouleme had declared in favour of Louis XVIII.

Rochefort was daily expected to be besieged, but it was believed that little or no resistance would be made.

The national Guard of Rochelle had been called upon for defence of that place in case of an attack, which they refused.

We have used every exertion to procure papers from the Ida, but without success. She remains at the quarantine ground, the small-pox being on board of her, and of course our agent has not been on board of her, nor have we been able to ascertain whether she has brought papers.

The above is sufficient to shew, that although Bonaparte withdrew Suchet from Spain, and Soult from before Bordeaux, thus having availed himself of his last resource, to protect his capital and his person, he is still unable to check the progress of the Allies.

Since the above was written, the Ida has been permitted to come up, and the passengers to land. We have been favoured with what is said to be the only paper brought by her, and haste to transcribe its contents. It was printed in the form of a hand-bill at Rochelle, dated April 5, and consists of the two following Official Bulletins.—[Bost. Daily Advertiser.

---

Her Majesty the Empress Queen and Regent, has received the following news of the situation of the army on the 20th of March:

The Gen. of division, Pire, entered Chaomont on the 20th and thus intersected the line of operations of the enemy. He intercepted many of the couriers and expresses & took the enemy's baggage, many pieces of cannon, magazines of clothing, and a great part of the hospital stores.

He has been effectually assisted by inhabitants of the country, who were every where in arms and showed the greatest zeal.

Monsieur the Baron of Visemberg, the Minister of Austria in England, returning from London, with Monsieur the Count Palfi, his secretary of legation; the Swedish lt. gen. Schildebrand, Minister of Sweden at the Court of the Emperor of Russia, with a Swedish major; the Prussian Chancellor of war Pignilhen; Messieurs de Tolstoy and de Marcoff, and two other officers of Ordnance; all going on missions to the different H. Quarters of the Allies, were arrested by the levy en masse, and conducted to the head quarters. The taking of these persons and their papers, all which have fallen into our hands, is of great importance.

The park of the army of Russia and all it equipage was at Bar-sur-Aube.—At the first news of the movement of our army, they evacuated upon Berfort, which movement deprived the enemy of his ammunition, of artillery, his transports of provisions of reserve, and of many other objects of great value and importance.

The Allied army intending to operate between the Aube and the Marne, had left the Russian Gen. Winzingerode, at St. Dizier, with 8000 cavalry, and two divisions of infantry to maintain the line of operation, and to facilitate the arrival of the artillery, ammunition and provisions, of which the enemy were in the greatest need.

The division of gen. Milhaud, and the cavalry of the guard, commmanded by gen. Sebastiani passed the ford Valcour, the 26th March, marched upon this cavalry, and after many fine charges routed him. 300 Russian cavalry many of them of the imperial guard, have been killed or taken prisoners. The 18 pieces of cannon, which the enemy had, were taken from him as well as his baggage.—The enemy has left the woods and meadows covered with his dead. All the corps of cavalry have distinguished themselves to the admiration of each other. The duke of Ragusa had pursued the enemy to Bar-sur-Ornain.

On the 29th, the head quarters of the Emperor were at Troyes; convoys of prisoners amounting to more than 6000 men, follow the army.

In all the villages the inhabitants are under arms; exasperated by the violence, crimes and ravages of the enemy, they wage again him a destructive and ruinous war.

APRIL 1.

The Emperor who had moved his H. Quearters to Troyes the 29th, made forced marches by Sens upon the capital.—His majesty was at Fontainbleau, 31st of March in the morning; but he there learnt the enemy had arrived 24 hours before the French army, and had occupied Paris, after having met an obstinate resistance, which cost him many men.—The corps of the dukes of Treviso and Ragusa, and that of gen. Compans, who have united in the defence of the capital, have re-assembled between Essone and Paris; where the Emperor has taken a position with all the army which is arriving from Troyes.

His majesty the Emperor enjoys the best health.

The following is endorsed in manuscript and in English on the paper:

The English and Portuguese troops, to the number of about 4000 men, entered Bordeaux without opposition, on Saturday, the 12th of March, the French troops having evacuated it the day before.

The following is all we have been able to collect of verbal intelligence from the passengers:

Capt. Woodruff left Paris March 11. On his arrival at Bordeaux he found the place in quiet possession of the English and Portuguese, & the inhabitants much pleased with the change—the white flag flying, and the white cockade displayed in every person's hat.

About the 6th of March, a very severe battle was fought between the armies under Lord Wellington and Soult, in which the latter was DEFEATED with immense loss.

On the 12th March, about 3000 British and Portuguese troops entered Bordeaux, the Mayor having previously made arrangements for their entry.

Lord Wellington was within a short distance of Bordeaux, when the Ida sailed.

Bonaparte with his army was at Essone;—about ten leagues south of Paris. The Empress and imperial court were at Tours

Mr. Crawford was st Paris when captain Woodruff left there, but had not been able to effect any object of his mission.

It is stated by the passengers that marshall Blucher entered Paris with 40,000 men, that he met with no resistance except from 3000 young men in the Polytechnick, all of whom except 4 were killed.

LOSS OF THE FROLIC.

Extract of a letter from the commander of the cartel, arrived at Providence from Nassau, dated May 10.

"I am sorry to inform you, that our sloop of war Frolic, Bainbridge, has been captured by his Britannic majesty's frigate Orpheus, and sent to New-Providence. She arrived two days before I sailed. She had thrown 11 of her guns overboard, and cut away some of her anchors. She was taken between Havanna and Matanzes. I had not time to get the particulars from the officers."

---

Among the multiplied cruelties practised on his victims by the ruthless Bonaparte, it is recorded by himself, in his General Orders in Italy, that the town of VITERBO, having dared to refuse an unconditional summons to surrender, he ordered it to be burnt, and a column to be raised amidst its ruins, with the horrible inscription,

"HERE STOOD VITERBO!"

Who shall sympathise with such a monster!!!

---

Philadelphia, May 13.

Extract of a letter to the editors of the Baltimore American, dated Vergennes, (Vt.) April 25.

"Being on the spot, I have it in my power to give you a true statement of our fleet on Lake Champlain—It consists of a new ship which mounts 30 guns on one deck, 32 pounders; a sloop of 12 18 pounders; 2 sloops, carrying 8 and 10 12 and 18 pounders; 2 do. carrying 6 18 do. and 10 row gallies carrying two heavy guns each. This fleet will be able to go into action by the 10th of May.

"The British fleet, from the best information I can obtain, consists of a new brig carrying 18 12 pounders;—4 sloops carrying from 6 to 10 guns; and 12 row gallies.

"From this statement I am inclined to believe, that our fleet will command the Lake this summer. Commodore M'Donough and his men, anxiously wish for a brush with the British fleet—The crews of his vessels are all active young men, under proper discipline, and fit for their business—What a difference between the Americans on land, and the Americans on water!"

NEW-YORK. May 12.

FROM OSWEGO.

By a gentleman from from Utica, who arrived in the Steam Boat last evening, we have received the following interesting intelligence:

"On Thursday last the 4th inst. about 11 o'clock, the British fleet under Com. YEO, appeared off Oswego, in force 7 sail, including their new frigate and two new brigs, and commenced an attack on the fort between 11 and 1 o'clock. After cannonading some time, an attempt was made to land a body of troops in 2 gun boats and about 12 barges, which were repulsed by our garrison. A 2d attempt was made in the course of the afternoon, under protection of the cannon of their fleet, and proceeded within close gunshot of the fort, which opened its fire on the boats, and drove them back to the shipping, with but small loss on our side in either attack. This account was bro't to Utica by a midshipman or clerk to Lt. Woolsey, of the Oneida, who was at Oswego falls, to direct the passage of the cannon and stores for the vessels at Sackett's Harbor, but on the appearance of the British fleet were ordered up to Oswego with a party of sailors, to assist in defending the place, and were in the engagements."

Our informant further states, "That the Lady of the Lake, was chased by the enemy into Sackett's Harbor on Thursday, and that Com. Chauncey immediately got his squadron under way and sailed in pursuit of the enemy, having with him the 2 new brigs. The new frigate was in considerable progress, and would sail in a few days."

The following disastrous intelligence is copied from the Albany Register of the 10th inst. which we received last evening by the steam boat North River.

ANOTHER DISASTER.

A gentleman who left Onondago on Sunday morning, and arrived in this city (Albany) last evening, informs, that before he departed, an express arrived from the village of Oswego, with the melancholy information that about 1500 British troops had, on the 6th inst. made good their landing at Oswego—that the opposing force at Oswego did not exceed 200 men—that the fort was taken as well as the village, together with a quantity of military stores, and a number of pieces of heavy ordnance—that the enemy then moved towards the Falls, where there were considerable depots of military stores, with a design, no doubt of destroying them.

Our informant also adds, that the militia at Onondago were ordered out, and were about to march to Oswego.

New York, May 14.

LATEST FROM OSWEGO.

OSWEGO TAKEN AND EVACUATED BY THE BRITISH.

We learn verbally, by the Steam boat Paragon, that the British have evacuated Oswego; previous to which they destroyed 40 bbls of flour, 300 bbls of whiskey, 8 large and 4 small pieces of ordnance, and burnt 2 or 3 public stores.—Our garrison in the fort, during the two first attacks made upon it, lost 14 killed, and between 30 and 40 wounded; the loss of the British is said to be 200.

Lt. Woolsey, with the schr. Growler, and 2 others of the squadron, from Sackett's Harbor, had been at Oswego; but hearing that the British fleet were out, he returned for Sackett's Harbor before the British fleet had made their appearance. The Growler was taking in cannon and military stores; and not being in a situation to sail, Lieut. W. had her scuttled.

GOOD NEWS!

CONCLUSION OF THE CREEK WAR.

Capt. Proctor has just arrived here in 7 days from the army. He states, that M'Quin, with 500 followers, has retired to the Escambia river near Pensacola.—Six or seven towns have surrendered at discretion, and Weatherford, who headed the massacre at Fort Mimms has delivered himself up

THE MURDER OF ISAAC WILLS.

Thomas Mitchell and Benj. D. Roebuck, the persons who were apprehended and lodged in the Chambersburgh jail on suspicion of having murdered Mr. Wills were brought to this place on Friday last, and conducted to prison. In that place they were examined the same evening, by his honor judge Franklin and associates, and on Saturday in open court. On this examination it was clearly proved by a variety of evidence, that Mitchell, (on whom suspicion chiefly rested) was not absent from Carlisle on the night which the murder was committed; and the unusual quantity of cash which he was possessed of about that time, was satisfactorily accounted for. He was discharged.

Roebuck was dismissed without much scrutiny, the suspicion of his guil being principally grounded on his intimacy with Mitchell. [Penn. Republican.

PLATTSBURGH, May 3.

The NORTHERN ARMY.

No news in circulation among us——Maj. Gen. Izard arrived here yesterday to take command. Our fleet is said will be ready to sail in 10 or 12 days. The British have not yet made their appearance on the lake, though hourly looked for. The armies on both sides, since the affair of la Cole, remain inactive. How long they will continue so we are unable to determine.

A NEAT PUN.

When Bonaparte from Russia fled,
And safely found himself at home,
He kiss'd the partner of his bed,
And then the king of Rome,
"My dear," said she, "since you've been gone,
Our darling little Son,
(O! how you'd laugh to see him try,)
Has learned to run alone—"
Said Bony, "So have I!"

Disgraceful Conduct.

By the express mail on Sunday last we received the following intelligence—Its correctness may be relied on:—At present we shall make no comment on this infamous proceeding, but confidently expect that the proper authority will order a strict enquiry into the conduct of Col. Campbell.

"ERIE, May 18, 1814.

"I expect you will have heard before this letter reaches you, that an expedition under the command of Col. Campbell, sailed from this place a few days ago for Long Point, with the intention, as was supposed by the people here, of bringing off or destroying a large quantity of flour which it was said the enemy had collected in several mills near the lake shore. The number of troops employed on this expedition were about 800, all of whom returned yesterday, and I should have been very happy had they been confined to what I was induced to believe was their main object—but, instead of this, there was nothing destroyed or brought away but private property, with the exception of ten or twelve barrels of flour, and it is not known whether even this belonged to the government or to individuals. A scene of burning of private property commenced shortly after the troops landed, which has not been exceeded in any instance since the commencement of the war by either party; I speak of the wanton and malicious destruction of property of individuals, without any benefit being derived from it, and only tending to provoke a severe retaliation; the extent was not so great as that on the Niagara frontier, but individual sufferings were equally great as far as it went. From the best information I could collect, there were two grist, three saw, and one fulling mill burned, (the latter containing near 100 pieces of cloth) and about 30 dwelling houses, mostly neat frame buildings. A village about a mile from the lake shore called Dover, suffered the most severely, but few houses left standing in it. Women and children turned out of doors destitute of every comfort or even necessary of life, and all this done, as I have been informed, by the orders of the commanding officer; for it is said the men behaved with the utmost circumspection, and even shuddered at the idea of being obliged to obey an order at which their feelings revolted.

"Retaliation no doubt will take place, and if the enemy was in a situation to cross the lake Erie would be the first place to suffer; but as they cannot easily come here, some unprotected place will feel the full weight of their vengeance. Should it fall on those who have been instrumental in burning and plunder, I would be satisfied; but in cases of this kind, it is always the innocent who are the unhappy victims."

We are informed from St. Louis, under date of April 21, 1814, "That a detachment of two or three hundred men would leave that place in a few days for Praire Dechien, under the command of Governor Clark—the troops go by water in fortified boats."

CONFIRMATION OF THE DEFEAT OF BONAPARTE—THE CAPTURE OF PARIS AND BORDEAUX BY THE ALLIES—AND THE BREAKING OFF THE NEGOTIATIONS AT CHATILLONS.

The cartel ship Fair American, Capt. Adams, arrived at this port yesterday morning, in 36 days from Liverpool, which place she left on the 8th of April, with dispatches for government.

London papers to the 6th of April, and Liverpool to the 7th, containing the following important intelligence.

Messrs. Bayard and Gallatin, our ministers to Russia, were at Amsterdam; it was not known that any commissioners had been appointed on the part of Great-Britain to meet ours; the passengers, however, inform, that a general peace, as well as a peace between the United States and Great-Britain, were expected with confidence to take place during the summer.

The British parliament was in session.

The Chancellor of the English Exchequer on the 4th of April, by command of the Prince Regent, communicated to parliament the intelligence of the rupture of the negociations at Chatillon; that the Allies were perfectly unanimous with respect to the measures which were become absolutely necessary to secure the repose of Europe; and that they, in conjunction with Great-Britain, were about to issue in France a declaration which would fully justify them in the eyes of Europe and of the world for the conduct they had pursued.

A naval officer arrived at the British admiralty on the 4th of April, with dispatches, stating that admiral Penrose had entered the Gironde on the Monday preceding. He reported that the inhabitants of Nantz had hoisted the white cockade.

Preceding the events noticed in the latest English official bulletin, a severe engagement took place near Paris between the Allies and the troops under Marshals Marmont and Mortier, with what force, including national guards, &c. they could collect; and the Empress and King of Rome had fled to Rambouillet.

The Journal de Bordeaux, No. 1, was published on the 1st of April; the first newspaper printed in France during the last twenty years in favour of the Bourbons. It contains the official journal of the entry of the British and Portuguese in Bordeaux, and the proclamation of the duke d'Angouleme to the French people in the name of his uncle.

The port of Leghorn is open to all allied and neutral nations.

The most extensive assistance was about to be afforded by the English government to the royalists in the south of France; an order has been given for supplying them with 150,000 stand of arms, and proportionate accoutrements, to be sent to Bordeaux with all possible expedition.

A relation of Talleyrand's arrival in England the beginning of April, on a secret mission.

The English have captured within a few months the French frigates Trave, Weser, Iphigenie, Alemeue, Clorinde, Sultane, Etoile, Terpsichore, and Sirius.

SECOND OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

War Department, Downing Street, April 5.

Letters received from Sir C. Stewart, dated, Heights of Belville, on Paris, 30th March.

A successful attack was made on the enemy on that day by the allied army.—The loss of the enemy in prisoners and artillery, was very considerable and the allies advanced after the action to the gates of Paris.

When on the point of forcing the barriers of the town, a flag of truce was sent out to solicit a capitulation, which was granted by the Emperor of Russia, and the King of Prussia, who entered Paris on the following morning at nine o'clock at the head of their troops.

Capt. Adams, of the Fair American informed us that a letter was received in Liverpool, on the evening of the 7th of April, by express, from gen. Gascoigne, in London, Member of Parliament, stating that the Allied Sovereigns were in Paris, negotiating with the French Senate, independent of of Bonaparte. The letter further stated that a general peace was expected.

A Liverpool paper of April 7th, says, "intelligence from Cork, states, that Bayonne surrendered on the 23d ult.

DOMESTIC ROVING AND SPINNING MACHINE.

This very important and useful improvement,

FOR Roving and Spinning Cotton and Wool, has been secured to Oliver Barret, jun. by letters patent. As it is impossible to give an adequate idea of machinery by description, it may be sufficient to state that this machine is very simple in its construction and operation, and not more liable to be put out of repair than a common spinning wheel, and may be made and repaired by a good carpenter or cabinetmaker.

A machine of twelve spindles will occupy about the same room as a bed. On a machine of twelve spindles, one woman (with a child to splice the rolls) will spin as much in a day as 8 Women on the common Wheel—the Spindles may be increased to any number; the yarn may be spun to any size, and preserved with great exactness. This Machine has all the advantages of the Billy and Jenny; it spins from the roll, reduces the roll to roving for roping, and spins the roping by the application of a 2d carriage. To avoid individual expense a few families have joined in the purchase of a machine. Cotton may be spun to any fineness the texture will permit.

The subscriber has received from the patentee, an assignment of the full and exclusive right of making, using and vending to others the use of the above machine, in the States of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Ohio, Kentucky, N. and S. Carolina, Georgia, Tennesaee, and within the several following territorial governments subject or attached to the U. S. viz: Orleans, Indiana, Mississippi, Louisiana, Illinois and Michigan territories, and now offers for Sale, the patent right, for the above territories, either by state, county, or otherwise, as may be wished or best calculated to benefit the community.

The friends of domestic manufactures are invited to examine for themselves; the machines only need to be seen and understood to be approved. Those who wish to purchase Territorial rights, to make and vend the said Machines to others, can be supplied on reasonable terms (in the absence of the subscriber) by applying to Mr. T. V. Loofburrow, at Frankfort, Ky. and Benj. Hough, esq. Chillicothe, O. Machines will be furnished by Mr. Loofburow, and Mr. S. Rankin, of Lexington, Ky. and by Mr. James Irwin, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

All persons are cautioned against using the said improvement without permission, within the above territories, as I will prosecute every offender. A liberal reward will be given to any person who will give me information of trespasses upon the patent, so that a conviction may be had.

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.
JANUARY 31, 1814.

The joint Committee appointed to examine Mr. Stephen Andres' Spinning Machine in conformity to his Memorial, proceeded to examine the same, and find it constructed for spinning Wool and Cotton, and more simplified than any machine heretofore offered for public use; possessing the advantage of spinning Billy and Jenny now in use—it may be used as a Billy for roving and spinning warp or filling, or as a Jenny for spinning warp from Wool or Cotton, which change may be made in a few minutes. The Machine contains 12 Spindles, and may be worked as a Billy by a common Spinner with the aid of a Boy or Girl, from 8 or 10 years old, and as a Jenny without any aid whatever. It possesses such advantages for saving labor and expediting the Manufacture of Domestic Goods, that your committee recommends the same to the patronage of the good citizens of this commonwealth.

TO THE FRIENDS OF DOMESTIC MANUFACTURES.

THE SUBSCRIBER,

HAS received from Stephen Andres, Agent for the Patentee, the full and exclusive right of Making, using, and vending to others, the use of the "Domestic Roving and Spinning Machine," in Allegheny County, Pa. and likewise authorised to furnish machines, with single rights, to be transported into any of the counties, states or territories belonging to Stephen Andres, where he shall not have sold the right. The Machines will be made of good materials, the best of Steel Spindles, and finished in workman-like manner, with any number of Spindles from 12 to 50. The advantage of these Machines is superior to any before used, as one performs all the different kinds of work that is done on the two used in the Woolen Factories, and less liable to be put of repair. Those who wish to purchase, may see a machine, & learn the terms, by applying to the subscriber, near the Round Church.

MISCELLANY.

THE SENSITIVE PLANT AND THISTLE.

A FABLE.

A Thistle happened to spring up near to a Sensitive Plant. The former observing the extreme bashfulness and delicacy of the latter, addressed her in the following manner: "Why are you so modest and reserved, my good neighbor, as to with-draw your leaves, at the approach of strangers? Why do you shrink, as if you were afraid from the touch of every hand? Take example and advice from me: If I liked not their familiarity, I would make them keep their distance; nor should any finger provoke me unrevenged." "Our tempers and qualities," replied the other, "are widely different. I have neither the ability nor inclination to give offence. You, it seems, are by no means destitute of either. My desire is to live peaceably in the station wherein I am placed; and though my humility may now and then cause a moment's uneasiness, it tends, on the whole, to preserve my tranquility. The case is otherwise with you, whose irritable temper, and revengeful disposition will, probably, one time or other, be the cause of your destruction." While they were thus arguing the point, the Gardner came with his little spaddle, in order to lighten the Earth, round the stem of the Sensitive Plant; but, perceiving the Thistle, he thrust his instrument through the root of it, and directly tossed it out of the garden.

AT THE CORNER OF WOOD AND THIRD STREETS.

PITTSBURGH.

(Sole Agents for the Western Country)

HAVE JUST RECEIVED A FRESH SUPPLY

OF

PAUL'S PATENT COLUMBIAN

OIL.

THIS valuable Medicine having been established upwards of three years, and its virtues sufficiently exemplified by the number of respecta e certificates repeatedly laid before th public, it therefore now only become necessary for the information of those w. may not have had an opportunity of per ing the certificates, to detail a few of the cases wherein the Oil has been so wonderfully efficacious. Printed handbills containing certificates, may be always had, gratis, from the Agents, who will keep a constant supply of the Oil.

The following are the complaints in which the Columbian Oil has been found so efficacious, and rarely ever fails of effecting a cure, viz——Rheumatism. Consumption, Pains in any part of the body but particularly in the back and breast, Colds and Coughs, Tooth-ache. Spleen, Pleurisies, Cholic, Cramps, external and internal bruises, Sprains and Flesh Wounds, Scalds and Burns, Dysentery or Bloody Flux, Croup and the Summer Complaint in Children, and in weak stomach, that is caused by indigestion, a constant sinking and loss of appetite, it will act as a powerful bracer to the relaxed fibre and restore it to its proper tone, Whooping Cough and Mumps.

It seems as though nature ranked it the first of the class of all pectorals and expectorals for the relief of the breast and lungs, as it scarcely ever fails of removing obstruction in either, particularly those who are troubled with Phthisic and Asthmatic complaints, who in the act of walking fast, stoo[illegible] down are almost suffocated, half a teaspoonful of the Columbian Oil will render some relief instantaneously, and if continued agreeably to the directions in such cases, will prove a radical cure by producing the full power of inflation to the lungs and free expansion of the breast.

To the Public.—In order to prevent deception, the public are cautioned not to purchase any Oil that may be offered as "Paul's Patent Columbian Oil," that does not bear the true characteristics as published by my principal and sole agent Doctor John Love, of Baltimore.

THOMAS PAUL, Patentee.

DOCTOR HANDY'S,

WORM DESTROYING

LOZENGES,

A safe and efficacious Medicine for destroying and bringing away

WORMS.

MAY be used with safety by children of any age, or as common physic by the most delicate constitution, in any climate, without restraint of diet, or the smallest danger from cold. It may be given with advantage after the small-pox or measles; or as a family medicine, in any case where physic is necessary. The most frequent seat of worms in the human body, is the intestinal tube; but occasionally they have been found in almost every other part of the body.

Some very extraordinary cases of Worms, of an unusual form and appearance, being brought away by these Lozenges, have been made public in England, where the rapid sale of the medicine has exceeded any thing of the kind ever known before; and has also proved, to a demonstration, its approved superiority, as an athelminthick, to the numerous puffed-up, useless nostrums, which are daily advertised in the newspapers.

A single dose of this valuable Medicine has often been known to remove half a pot-full of the Teres or Round Worms.

A few doses are generally sufficient to remove the Ascarides, a small white worm, the seat of which is either the stomach or rectum.

Even the Tape Worm, at all times the most difficult to destroy, may, by persevering in the frequent use of this medicine, be totally removed in the course of a few weeks.

To select cases, with the names of people who are not known here, and living at a great distance, would be useless, and take up too much of the reader's time We shall therefore only observe, for the benefit of those who are unacquainted with the symptoms of worms, that they are known or suspected to exist by a pain in the stomach, attended with a sudden depression of spirits before eating; at other times, the belly is hard, painful and distended with wind—costiveness, head-ache, and trembling of the limbs, with a sense of something rising in the throat—pale complexion and emaciated body, with weakness and irregular appetite—convulsive, epileptic, or falling fits—pains in the back and side, and frequent itching of the nose, and sometimes of the anus. The above, and a long train of afflicting diseases may all be occasioned by worms, which are much oftener the cause of death than is commonly believed.

Doctor CHISHOLM'S

Anti-Bilious Pills,

OF A QUALITY

Superior to any thing of the kind ever offered as a

GENERAL MEDICINE,

IN THIS COUNTRY,

Now prepared from a recipe of the celebrated Dr. Chisholm, who, from a long residence in the West-India islands, has been enabled to favor the world with the most complete history, and most approved methods of curing all the BILIOUS DISEASES of those warm climates

This extraordinary medicine, which now for the first time is finding its way into general practice, has properties in the highest degree superior to the mercurial nostrums so frequently recommended by the name of Anti-Bilious Pills. The extraordinary powers of this medicine as a solvent and evacuant of bile, is without example; never producing debility, or injuring the health, in the smallest degree, of the most delicate child, or weakly female.

The BILIOUS HEAD-ACHE, so much complained of in this country, and in the neighbourhood of rivers, is often removed by a single dose, which, to a strong man, is only five pills, and to a weakly woman, three. The same dose will generally remove the most excrutiating pains of the cholic, like a charm, by abusing the bile to pass downwards in the course of an hour or two.

Two or three Pills taken an hour before dinner, and repeated every third day, will effectually remove those diseases arising from flatulency and indigestion, and by persevering in the use of them for a considerable time, the appetite will be improved, and strength and vigor will return.

Two Pills taken at bed time, with a cup of penny-royal tea, and repeated every second night, will effectually remove Rheumatic pains, wherever seated.

A single Pill, taken every fourth hour with a cup of flax-seed tea, will cure Pleurisy, promote expectoration, and relieve coughs and colds.

In CONSUMPTIVE CASES and diseases of the liver, no medicine ever yet discovered, has been known to perform such cures. Two Pills, taken every third morning, will be found sufficient, unless costiveness prevails; in which case, the dose may be increased according to the strength or constitution.

The Dysentery, Croup, and Summer Complaint on children, are soon relieved by a few doses. A single Pill to a child of 6 years old, and the dose increased according to their strength and age.

In Asthmatic or Phthisical cases, where the laborious breathing and great oppression, with faintings, are fast sinking the patient to the brink of the grave, a few Pills, taking one every hour, with fennel or pepper-mint tea, will often enable the patient to walk about in a few hours.
